

Register Now

You're Invited!

Register Now

Biodiesel Fuel Workshop

An advanced educational training session featuring:

- Rich Cregar, Wake Technical Community College
- Rob Dascal, Renewable Energy Group
- Lauren Stuart, Greater Baton Rouge Clean Cities Coalition

Topics to be covered include:

- Economic and Environmental Sustainability
- Fuel Properties, Quality & Production Processes
- Best Practices for Use, Distribution, Handling and Storage
- Accountability-Establishing a Green Fleet Program

July 15th, 2010
12:30 PM-4:30 PM

Louisiana State University
Center for Energy Studies
Energy Coast & Environment Building,
Rotunda Conference Room-1019

REGISTER NOW! The workshop is FREE! Pre-registration IS required.

For more information and to register contact gbrccc@gmail.com, or call (225) 578-9253.

For driving directions and details please go to click here.

Sponsored by the U.S. Department of Energy in cooperation with Greater Baton Rouge Clean Cities Coalition and NC Solar Center/NC State University. Materials for the Clean Transportation Education Project were developed by the NC Solar Center/NC State University and partners with funding from the U.S. Dept of Energy Clean Cities program. The U.S. Government does not assume any legal liability, responsibility for the accuracy, completeness, or usefulness of any information provided, nor endorses any particular product through this support.